

RELIEF TRAIN GOES NOV. 4.

It May Very Likely Consist of a Dozen Loaded Cars.

Gifts Received at the Office of "The World."

"The World's" relief train, with supplies of clothing and provisions for the sufferers from the cyclone and yellow fever scourge at the South, will start from this city on Saturday morning next, Nov. 4.

This has been definitely decided. Contributions have been coming in rapidly during the past few days, and it is estimated by the railroad people that with the goods and packages already received, together with the additional supplies of groceries which will be purchased with the money sent in, there will be sufficient to fill five or six freight cars.

During the coming week, if the people of New York continue to show their practical sympathy for the sufferers in the same generous manner, there is very little doubt that the relief train can be made up of a dozen or more cars, which will carry comfort and joy to thousands in the stricken districts.

It is expected that additions will be made to the train at several of the large cities along the route, for collection have been made in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. Yesterday's contributions received at "The World" office included $25.50 in money, making a total of $1,087.75 in cash, besides forty-three packages of clothing, with sixty-three packages still uncollected.

Among the contributors was the firm of W. H. Schieffelin & Co., the large wholesale druggists, which kindly gave "The World" permission to select a quantity of drugs for use in the infected district at Brunswick. Thirty-two barrels of bromo-oxygen, a powerful disinfectant, were selected as being the most useful in the present emergency.

Here are the directions for those who wish to make contributions to the relief train:

Send money contributions to the Cashier of "The World," specifying the Relief Fund. Contributions of provisions and other supplies should be sent, expressage paid, to pier No. 1 North River, Battery place and West street, or to pier No. 27 North River, foot of Light street, where receipts will be given. Contributions of blankets, clothing, &c., may be sent to the Dry-Goods Exchange, No. 7 Walker street, marked "World Relief Train," or to the Harlem World Office, corner of Madison avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, or to the Brooklyn World Office, No. 209 Washington street, Brooklyn. Persons having packages of clothing, if they so prefer, can send a postal card addressed "Relief Train, World Office," or to any branch office of the New York Transfer Company, and the packages will be collected. The postal card sent will be shown by the driver as his authority to receive the contributions. All contributions will be acknowledged in "The World."

Passenger and Freight Trains Collide.
TIPPIN, N. C., Oct. 28.—A west-bound passenger train crashed into a Pennsylvania freight train on the crossing in the eastern portion of the city yesterday. The engine and three of the freight cars were derailed and completely wrecked. None of the passengers or trainmen was injured, though all received a severe shaking up. Traffic on the roads was delayed for several hours.

SIXTY-FOUR YEARS MARRIED.

Rev. and Mrs. Beecher Congratulated by Many Friends.

Rev. Edward Beecher and his venerable wife are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the completion of the sixty-fourth year of what may be truthfully termed "their wedded bliss." The anniversary of the wedding of Oct. 27, 1829, came yesterday. It found the clergyman in his ninetieth year, hale and hearty. His wife and helpmeet is eighty-seven years old, but seemingly as full of life and health and spirit as were their first remaining children. Rev. W. Beecher, of Soda, N. Y., and Eugene F. Beecher, of Brooklyn, who were present at the little reception in celebration of the anniversary.

Dr. Beecher married Isabella Porter Jones at the home of her parents, in Wisconsin. They had twelve children, ten of whom have passed away. Miss Voice Adams Beecher, their adopted daughter, wearing a gown of gray satin and pink chiffon, received the visitors at yesterday's reception, assisted by Mrs. John Adamson. The tea table was presided over by Miss Grace and Mabel Jewett, assisted by three ten-year-old girls, Miss Grace Matthews, Sadie Adamson and Louise Cameron. Mrs. Beecher, in a black satin gown bordered in pale blue, trimmed with blue ribbon, and her crown a cap of white lace, trimmed with pale blue, was very happy.

Edward Beecher was the second son of Rev. Dr. Lyman Beecher, whose family included Revs. Henry Ward Beecher, Lyman K. Beecher and Edward K. Beecher, and Harriet Beecher Stowe. He was born at Easthampton, N. Y. He was graduated from Yale in 1852. His first pastorate was the Park Street Congregational Church, Boston, in 1852.

TO PUT A FOOT UNDER LEACH.

The Money Comes In Nicely, but a Little More Is Needed.

Any Sum, Big or Little, Helps the Fund to Grow.

Even in these hard times readers of "The Evening World" find something in their purses for the aid of those who are in greater need than themselves. Letters from three such are found in today's mail, each bringing a little money to add to that already secured for Harvey H. Leach.

Leach is growing more hopeful day by day as the fund for the purchase of a proper appliance for his helpless leg mounts up. He knows, and "The Evening World" knows, that when the necessary $1,000 is raised it will purchase him not simply a cork foot, with trusty supports for the leg that has not grown since he was a boy, but it will make him self-sustaining, not only in the matter of walking, but in the matter of earning a living.

With a leg that will help him to get around instead of being a drag upon him, Harvey Leach will be able to return to his work as a cracker-packer and to be a man again. Harvey Leach is a soldier in the Salvation Army. Salvation soldiers know how to pray, and the reader of "The Evening World" who helps, even by so small a sum as a nickel or a dime, to put a new leg under him, may be sure that Harvey Leach's prayers will go up for him.

A few more dollars are needed to complete the $1,000 for the foot. An odd quarter now and then, a dime, a nickel, even a penny, will help. Every penny given towards the purchase of a foot for poor Harvey Leach will be better than an option to heaven so far as helping him to be an honest, upright, courageous man is concerned. In today's mail was $1 from an anonymous Samaritan, who signed the note containing the money "J. T. W." There was another $1 bill from a Brooklyn lady, who hides her identity under the signature, "Appreciative," and an "Unknown," gives 25 cents. This is the only kind of anonymous letters "The Evening World" acknowledges, and it would be pleased to find a silver quarter or a greenback in its little inside for Harvey H. Leach deserves to have a better leg.

Leach today received a letter in care of "The Evening World" from Dr. Charles H. Wehnholtz, of 157 East Eighty-second street, containing a check for $1.

EAGAN'S HOME IS REALLY LOST.

His Wife Denies That He Had a Representative at the Sale.

Mrs. Mary M. Eagan, wife of Michael J. Eagan, who fainted on the floor of the New York Real Estate Salesroom, at 111 Broadway, last Thursday, when his house was sold under foreclosure proceedings, called at "The Evening World" office today to deny a statement of Thomas O'Connor, O'Connor's representative at the sale, that she had a mortgage on Eagan's house for $2,000, and said that the latter had a representative at the sale to bid up the property.

The house, Mr. Eagan says, was bought by W. E. Hubby, secretary of the New York Building Loan Company, to protect the Company, which has a claim of $1,200 against the property. She denies that her husband had any representative at the sale, or derived a dollar from it. He has lost his house and is out of work. Scattered Town, of 312 Spring street, a friend of the Eagans, says to have a fund raised to enable the Eagan to regain their house, or, if that cannot be accomplished, to aid them in their present distress. He says he will start the subscription with $5.
